

DMDrop for iManage

Users can save emails and rename them in bulk

Professional Services firms leveraging iManage's document management system require a simple and effective way to rename emails as they are saved into iManage Work 10.x.

Today, there is no way to easily name one or more emails saved into iManage Desktop without development. With GDSI's DMDrop for iManage, users can save emails and rename them in bulk.

KEY FEATURES

- Outlook add-in
- Support for one or more emails to save
- Users can drag/drop, right-click, or ribbon bar-button
- Support for iManage's Email Management Toolbar and Recommendation field
- No installation required, utilizes the iManage Applications push
- Ability to save attachments in different locations
- Ability to save attachments automatically in the same location

TECHNOLOGY PLATFORM

- Outlook 2016, 2019, Microsoft365 On-premises
- iManage Work Desktop 10.4.x or higher

PRICING

$100/user plus 20% annual maintenance, first year up front

Additional setup fees may apply should the firm require a custom setup